REPORTING & EDITORIAL EXPERIENCE

Emeryville Today | Public Safety Reporter | Aug. 2026–Present

- Cover public safety, policing and criminal justice in Emeryville, California, attending public meetings, interviewing residents and officials, and using public records and data to identify stories affecting the community.
- Reported an enterprise story examining declining police-reported shoplifting alongside retailers' experiences, interviewing business owners, police officials and a crime researcher to investigate what crime statistics may overlook.
- • Turned around a same-day story on Emeryville's approval of a three-year police labor agreement, reporting from a City Council meeting and examining the deal's $1.18 million cost amid the city's projected budget shortfall.

UC Irvine Student Success Initiatives | Senior Editor | Aug. 2023–June 2026

- Wrote and edited biweekly newsletter stories covering resources and campus life
- Established editorial guidelines, supervised student writers, reviewed drafts for clarity and consistency and coordinated schedules to meet recurring deadlines.
- Produced multimedia and social media content for student audiences through Instagram and WeChat.

Finding Founders Podcast | Editing Intern | Aug. 2022–Aug. 2024

- Edited audio and video interviews for narrative structure, clarity and pacing, refining conversations into coherent episodes and developing experience in storytelling.

ADDITIONAL EXPERIENCE

Hoffmann-La Roche | Marketing Intern | July 2025–Feb. 2026

- Analyzed health care and physician participation data using Excel, developing dashboards to support internal reporting and data-driven presentations.
- Maintained daily dashboards and helped develop monthly and quarterly key performance indicators to track performance over time.
